

2020 PUBLICATION DATES AND DEADLINES

The Village Pump is a community newspaper, printed and produced locally and delivered fortnightly to approximately 4800 letterboxes in Samford and surrounds. An additional 460 newspapers are hand delivered to more than 40 local businesses.

The Village Pump is owned and administered by the Samford & Districts Progress & Protection Association (SDPPA). As a non-profit organisation, all profits generated through advertising revenue supports local community projects through the grants program, as well as specific projects and causes which are voted on by members of the SDPPA.
